Well done Year 6

We should never underestimate how challenging SATS week is for our Year 6 children. It is mentally exhausting from start to finish and can I just say, they have handled themselves very well. They have stuck in, tried their best, asked for support when they have needed it and most of all, should be so unbelievably proud of themselves. A well-deserved celebration today, with lots of smiles and relieved faces. Your children are fabulous, and you should all be so proud! Thank you also to all the staff who have been involved this week, including our Governors – you have all been rocks! Have a relaxing weekend and bring on all the lovely things that are to come before you embark on your secondary journey!
